Introducing a relaxed elegance befitting our Southern heritage, The Whitley recently debuted a newly renovated restaurant, bar, and Legacy Ballroom that includes 14-foot ceilings, crystal chandeliers, a wall of windows, and private alfresco terrace. And, with 507 luxurious guestrooms with 56 spacious suites, indoor and outdoor function areas, and easy spaces for all-day dining, The Whitley is equally and perfectly suited to business and pleasure.

No matter the occasion, enjoy the extraordinary services of The Whitley, part of the Luxury Brand Portfolio of Marriott International.

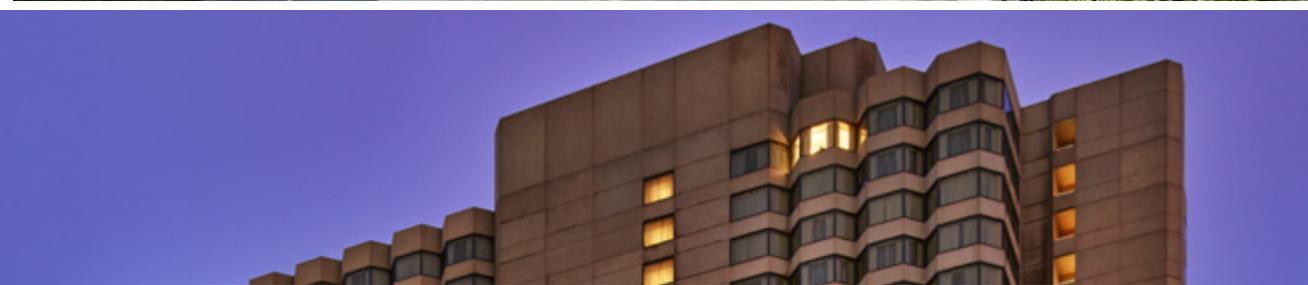

A STORIED PAST

Back in the 1800s, long before Atlanta was a thriving metropolitan hub, the area was a wild and rural land. Through the years and with the help of a frontiersman named John Whitley, the community of Buckhead was established. Legend has it the hunter mounted a buck's head near Henry Irby's tavern, aiming to create a gathering place where curious and adventurous souls could meet and socialize. This place of hospitality came to be revered as Buckhead.

TIMELESS PRESENT

Today, we stand as both a landmark and trendsetter in Atlanta's coveted neighborhood, with luxurious spaces for gathering, indulging, relaxing and idea sharing. The Whitley echoes the ever-changing landscape and progressive nature of Buckhead today, intertwining heritage and new discoveries in order to provide memorable experiences delivered with authentic Southern hospitality. The Whitley's prime location, steps from upscale shopping, dining, and nightlife, is simply cosmopolitan – just like our luxury hotel's guests.
